SCHOOLS- Secondary - District Board, South Kanara- Board High School, Admar - Disbursment of salary of the staff by issue of cheque- Sanction to incur Bank Commission

At present the salary of the establishment of Board High School, Admar is remitted by M.O.incurring a monthly expenditure of about Rs.22/- on M.O.commission. There is a branches of a Scheduled Bank viz. the Canara Industrial and Banking Syndicate Ltd., at Kaup which is about five miles from Admar and this bank charges a commission of 0-1-0 for 100, the minimum commission being Re.1/- towards cashing the cheques drawn on Udipi Treasury. Having regard to the large amount of M.O.commission that is spent now, it has been decided to issue cheques towards the salary of this school to be cashed in the above Bank paying the above rate of commission. The actual expenditure monthly, if this arrangement is followed would amount to about Rs.2/- i.e., Re.1-0-0 Bank Commission and Re.1-0-0 for the actual expenses of the person, who is proposed to be deputed to Kaup for encashment of the cheque. This would result in an annual savings of Rs.240/- to the District Board. Government have been pleased to order such arrangement in respect of Board High School, Byndur (G.O.Ms.No. 863 Edn., dated 16-4-1951) and Board High School, Hejmady (G.O.Ms.No. 1513 Edn.,dated 10-9-1955).

2. I therefore, request that Government may be pleased to approve the above proposal of issuing cheques to Board High School, Admar for being cashed at the branch of Canara Industrial & Banking Syndicate Limited, Kaup on paying the above rate of commission and issue early orders in the matter.
